

To Whom It May Concern,

I have had the absolute pleasure of utilizing Mrs. Susan MacCargar's talents both as a graphic designer and overall partner in my latest marketing and social networking business venture, Charleston Singles Club.

Mrs. MacCargar not only turns out incredible creative and brilliant art but she has shaped, created and made my brand a professional and unique force within my market. Her attention to detail, incredible work ethic, modern design and entrepreneurial predisposition has catalyzed my company to take the next step professionally. From day one she showed up to work hard and I no longer consider her the graphic designer of this project, I now consider her a close ally, consultant and partner within my organization. Truly good designers and artists are hard to come by. Truly good designers and artists with Mrs. MacCargar's attitude, work ethic, professionalism and talent are one-in-a million.

With my highest regards and without reservation I recommend Mrs. MacCargar for any position within your organization and I ask that you feel free to contact me anytime to speak more in detail about Mrs. MacCargar's shown and proven credentials.

Sincerely,

Justin VanBogart
